

Vocational education and training application for an occupation to be declared a trade or vocation

All apprenticeships and traineeships in South Australia must be declared as a trade or vocation by the South Australian Skills Commission (the Commission). An application to declare a trade or vocation must utilise this proforma and must contain all the requested information. Applicants must complete a separate application for each proposed declaration of a trade or vocation they are seeking.

It is important to read South Australian Skills Standard 1 – Declaration of Trades and Vocations before completing the proforma.

Trade and vocation declaration notices are published in the South Australian Government Gazette:

Apprenticeships and traineeships aligned to trades and declared vocations are published in the Traineeship and Apprenticeship Pathways (TAP) Schedule:
