Large Employer of the Year

The Large Employer of the Year award recognises a large businesses and enterprise that has achieved excellence in the provision of nationally recognised training to their employees.

Eligibility criteria

To nominate for this award, an organisation must employ 100 or more full time equivalent employees:

And deliver nationally recognised vocational education and training to their employees that leads to formal qualifications or Statements of Attainment issued by a Registered Training Organisation under the Australian Qualifications Framework.

The South Australian Training Awards will accept joint applications from:

a partnership between a single Host Employer and a single Group Training Organisation

Host Employers or Group Training Organisations who nominate for the award are required to have their partner agree to the nomination

Employers must nominate for the relevant award in the state or territory where their head office is located.

NB. Nominations will not be accepted from organisations whose core business is the delivery of vocational education and training. These organisations may consider nominating for the Small or Large Training Provider of the Year categories.

2022 state winners of this category are nominated to enter a shortlisting process for the Australian Training Awards

Preparing your application

Section A: Business Summary

Provide a brief description of your business, including the products or services that you offer and any major milestones you have achieved.

(limit: 500 words)

Section B: Applicants will be judged against the following criteria:

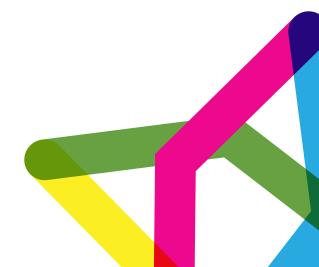

Criterion 1: Extent and quality of training for employees

Criterion 2: Achievements of the business and its employees that can be attributed to training

Criterion 3: Integration of training into business planning

Criterion 4: Innovation and excellence in design and delivery of training

Criterion 5: Commitment to equity in training

Addressing the criteria

This information will be considered and used for shortlisting and judging purposes. Please be aware your responses to the criteria will be strengthened by including measurable results and appropriate indicators, including customer satisfaction data and other types of external validation.

If you are nominating as a joint partnership, the responses to the selection criteria must only be based on work jointly completed and achievements jointly accomplished by both organisations.

The considerations listed under each criterion clarify what to include when addressing the criterion.

Criterion 1: Extent and quality of training for employees

Consider:

your involvement in designing training specifically for your business, either alone or in partnership with training organisations

the qualifications or courses that your employees are undertaking

the percentage of your employees who are actively engaged in training hours per month (average) that your employees spend in training

how you integrate on-the-job and off-the-job training.

(limit: 800 words)

Criterion 2: Achievements of the business and its employees that can be attributed to training

Consider:

how training has improved the productivity and well-being of your employees (briefly describe the personal training achievements of a few of your staff)

how training has improved your relationships with clients

how training has improved the productivity and profitability of your business

how you measure the benefits of training

how training will improve your business in the future.

(limit: 800 words)

Criterion 3: Integration of training into business planning

Consider:

the training aims of your business

the 'training culture' you have established within your business

how training fits into your workforce development and business planning

how you have formalised an ongoing commitment to training

how you find out about the training needs of your employees.

(limit: 800 words)

Criterion 4: Innovation and excellence in design and delivery of training

Consider:

details of creativity, innovation and excellence in the design, development and delivery of training for your employees innovative methods that you use to create positive relationships or partnerships with others to enhance the effectiveness of your training innovative approaches that you use to encourage access to training for your employees (e.g., Mentoring, e-learning, collaborative learning).

(limit: 800 words)

Criterion 5: Commitment to equity in training

Consider:

the training you have made available to employees who are from groups under-represented in employment, education and training (such as people with disabilities, indigenous people, people from non-English speaking backgrounds, people in older age groups, people living in remote areas)

the number of these employees who have actively engaged in training the number of these employees who have actively trained for managerial or supervisory jobs the training programs that have been specifically designed for these employees.

Attachments

Up to ten (10) single A4 page attachments are permitted, with each attachment to be provided at a 100 per cent ratio, one document per page. Attachments must be referenced in your application. No multimedia items or discs will be accepted, and any material exceeding the maximum number of attachments (10) will not be considered.
